The beginning of summer is the perfect time to sail roundtrip from Seattle to beautiful Alaska. Explore the Golden Princess® during a day at sea, where you can relax in the pool or try your luck at the casino. Spend a day in Alaska's capital city of Juneau, where only a few miles outside of town, you can stand in the shadow of the massive Mendenhall Glacier. The gold-rush comes alive in Skagway, where you can walk where early settlers came in search of their fortune. See the magnificent Tracy Arm Fjord for yourself, where giant chunks of ice calving off of the nearly vertical-walled glaciers will take your breath away. In Ketchikan, walk among the stilted streets and buildings of the once-infamous Creek Street. Finally, spend an evening discovering the Inner Harbour of quaint Victoria, British Columbia, before returning to Seattle to end your voyage.
